

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT BROOKLINE, MASSACHUSETTS POLICE CHIEF

The Town of Brookline seeks highly qualified applicants for the position of Police Chief. With a population of 59,000 within six square miles, Brookline is a diverse and vibrant community bordered on three sides by Boston. It is known for its beautiful green spaces, excellent public schools, progressive social and political culture, and a distinctive mix of urban and suburban, commercial and residential areas. Town residents are supportive of the police department and appreciate that the department works in partnership with the community to ensure that all people enjoy a high quality of life without fear of crime and with fair and impartial policing.

Town Government

Brookline is governed by a Representative Town Meeting form of government, with a five-person Select Board and a Town Administrator who are committed to maintaining an inclusive and progressive approach to policing.

The Police Department

The Brookline Police Department (BPD) currently employs 136 sworn officers, 42 full-time and 20 part-time non-sworn personnel. With a budget of $15M, BPD has enjoyed stable leadership, with the incumbent chief retiring after serving 23 years as chief. The Department operates with one chief, one superintendent, four deputy superintendents, 11 lieutenants, 16 sergeants, 103 police officers and 16 civilian dispatchers. Officers are selected and promoted through the rank of lieutenant through the Massachusetts Civil Service System. Officers and sergeants are represented by the Brookline Police Association (International Brotherhood of Police Officers).

The Police Chief is appointed by the Town's Select Board, with recommendation from its Town Administrator, to whom the Chief is a direct report. The Board effectively operates as the Town's Police Commissioners with daily administrative supervision from the Town Administrator. As chief executive officer of the Department, the Chief is the departmental authority in all matters of policy, operations, and discipline.

The Ideal Candidate for Police Chief

The Town of Brookline is seeking a proven leader with exceptional management, interpersonal, and communication skills and demonstrated experience in developing and maintaining effective working relationships with government officials, community and civic groups (including private-sector partners), and police department employees. Experience working in an urban police setting in a labor relations environment is highly preferred. Under the administrative direction of the Town Administrator, the successful candidate will be expected to expand upon the innovative policing practices and community engagement efforts of the department, and to have a proven track record of openness, transparency, and working with diverse communities. The new chief must be well versed in best practices in policing, and have the ability to work collaboratively as a part of the town's management team in addressing issues of public safety in an inclusive, democratic governing environment.

The position requires a bachelor's degree. A master's degree in criminal justice, police administration, business administration, or related field is strongly preferred. Ten years of progressively responsible police experience is required, five of which shall have been in a supervisory capacity. An equivalent combination of education and experience that provides the necessary knowledge, skills and abilities to perform the job will be considered. Additional specialized leadership education, such as the Senior Management Institute for Police (SMIP) and the FBI National Academy is desirable.

Once appointed, the Police Chief must obtain police certification in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Residency in the Town is NOT a requirement.

Compensation

The salary range is $137,300 to $161,800, based on qualifications. The Town offers an excellent benefits package including participation in the state sponsored defined benefit pension plan, strong health insurance coverage, a 457 deferred compensation plan and educational incentive pay. Massachusetts municipal and other jurisdictions do not participate in the Social Security system.

How To Apply

The Police Executive Research Forum (PERF) is assisting the Town in the selection process.
