

Florida Ruffin Ridley Solar Project

The installation of the solar panels at the Florida Ruffin Ridley School have been completed and they will be producing electricity by the end of April, 2021. The new solar panels will result in the schools electricity usage to drop by 18.1%.

