

Educational Seminars

Thursday May 19th 7PM via ZOOM

Brookline Adult Education

The Life & Legacy of Francis Ouimet: Brookline's U.S. Open Champion

Growing up in Brookline across from the 17th hole at The Country Club, Francis Ouimet changed the game of golf for good. In the late 1890s and early 1900s, the game's popularity blossomed in elite sporting hotspots such as Newport, Boston, New York and Chicago, while the nation's top tournaments were won by British and Scottish professionals. As a 20-year-old amateur from humble beginnings, Ouimet turned this narrative on its head, stunning the golf world with his victory at the 1913 U.S. Open. Sometimes called "the [golf] shot heard across the world," he inspired a new generation of American champions and symbolized a nation striving to earn respect on a global stage. Though his victory alone would remain a watershed moment more than a century later, this was just the beginning of his impact on the game of golf. Learn more about Ouimet and his lasting legacy at a virtual lecture by USGA senior historian, Victoria Nenno.

<https://www.campusce.net/brookline/course/course.aspx?C=5471&pc=58&mc=70&sc=0>

Thursday May 26th 7PM

Brookline Adult Education

Celebrity Chef Anna Rossi: Eat Like You're at the U.S. Open!

Anna Rossi, Instructor

The second week of June is just around the corner, golfers and golf enthusiasts from all over the world will flock to Brookline for the 2022 U.S. Open. Emmy Award winning Lifestyle Host and TV Personality, Anna Rossi, will discuss quintessential picnic food, demonstrate and share a few recipes that will be perfect to enjoy whether you are watching the Open from the fairway or from your family room! No discounts will apply.

Sec. 01 : # sessions: 1 Day: Th 7:00-8:00PM. Begins 5/26/2022. Brookline High School. $20

<https://www.campusce.net/brookline/course/course.aspx?C=5479&pc=58&mc=70&sc=0>